• NEW ERA •

You are falling again and you're losing yourself, if you hold my hand we get into New Era
I was looking into my dreams, I was looking into my veins and I saw my winter and nothing more. I was looking in my despair and I was trying to hope again in my soul, cause I was wrong!
I'd never seen real poverty so I couldn't find myself! I never knew what I had to do but I had to believe it for this dream.

(Chorus) I keep running again, I will never forget to hope once again, - In a desert of sand - you hold my hand and we get into New Era! I'm still running again, I can't stop anything, you can try with your heart and we are risen in you - to be always free - you can't stop New Era!

Now I'm looking into my soul now I'm looking into myself and I feel my stillness and much more. Seems too strange to say these words, seems too strange in this world, but it's real, believe me! Now I know that I can rely on me then I can find myself. Do you try to give with your heart but I have to believe it for this dream.

Chorus

You are falling again and you are losing yourself in a desert of sand if you'll be like rain you can find the way!
Can you try with your heart? I believe you can do in a desert of sand if you hold my hand you will find the way!

I'm still running again, I can't stop anything, you can try with your heart and we are risen in you - to be always free - you can't stop New Era!

• BRING ME BACK •

I have spoken in your mind, living in your mind, I have a need to be free, but I'm living in a dark moon.

Bring me back in the corner of your head, bring me there where the emptiness is dead, where the happiness never ends never stop to breath (and) I don't forget who I am. Far away from beginning to the end behind your veil from the madness I get away. I want to get away, I want to escape to defeat the pain again.

(Chorus) Inside me I know, inside me I fall, invent through your world, imagine your land, imagine my end. Decide to see over.

Now I'm here it's all so clear, all that time I've been so blind I can draw strength from my mind and I know. Here I am in a magic land of fake. I can't wait for my ransom of my betrayal, but now I want to escape, get away, please let me go away!

Chorus

I have spoken in your mind, I have a need to be free, but I'm living in a dark moon.

You are lost again - look into my eyes - if you don't lose - can't search for the light - you're my savior - I'm free to decide. Don't cry for me - I can make it. My honesty - I'll be victorious. I'm not alone - and I've been waiting to defeat the pain again.

Chorus

• SPETTRALIA •

Immaginando quello che ora sono, quello che sei stata, ombre dal buio e ti conosco bene sei tu che hai perso è dura e lo sai. Quanto male hai ancora per me? Ma non riesco a resistere, mi respirerai!

(Chorus) Vai corri Spettralia, via nel tempo mi
riporterai e parole sincere vorrei
spletata me!

Gocce sono pioggia spettro di una lacrima, setanera sopra di me. Sospiando e gemiti, ascoltano i miei fremiti, è dura la salita, ce la fai? Non è finita! Dimmi se c'è un tempo per me, che non riesco
a resistere, finché il male non smetterà mai

Vai corri Spettralia, tu nel vento mi risparmierei e confusi misteri se hai pietà di te. Corri Spettralia, via nel tempo mi riporterai e parole sincere vorrei spletata!

Vai corri Spettralia, tu nel vento mi risparmierei e confusi misteri se hai pietà di te. Corri Spettralia, via nel tempo mi
riporterai e parole sincere vorrei
spletata!

• DANCE FLOOR •

Killing your soul in a craze of the world.
They promised you success and control,
the breath of your world.
Killing your soul in a craze of the world.
They promised you success and control, the breath of the world.
They promised you the power and you'd be burnt with fire.

I can't wait to heal again,
my mistakes I want to regret!

Lost in your gold in a trip on dance floor,
your faith is a whore once more,
they leave you alone.
They promised you the power and you'd be burnt with fire.

I can't wait to heal again,
my mistakes I want to regret!
(I can't wait) to heal again,
(my mistakes) I want to regret!

• I MUST GO •

Almost sunrise and I wake up in my room, curtains flying in the wind and you are sleeping on my bed. I speak in your ear, but I don't think you hear my words while you're breathing on my bed, so quietly on my bed.

And I see your face, when I see your face I would run away and when I touch your hair, I would vanish in the air.

(Chorus) I must go, I must forgive you, I must stop suffering for you and every morning.
I must go, I must forgive you, I must stop suffering for you.

The time is over, I believe that you are wrong 'cause you leave me alone, I try to understand.
Deep inside me - I am strong, even now I'm crying alone. I can't wait for you again, but you're sleeping on my bed.
And I see your face, when I see your face I would run away and when I touch your hair, I would vanish in the air

Chorus

In my arms here with me, I can't hold you. In my dreams I'll be with you. I am screaming for you.

Chorus

• BLACK RIVER •

Sola nella stanza aspetti il giorno che anime distorte fuggano da te. Colpevole vanità! La tua immagine non è quello che sei. Ma vorrei infiniti modi hai per capire cosa vuoi.

(Chorus) I'm drowning in a black river.
I'm fighting a lost war. I'm drowning in a black river and I'm fighting a lost war.

Sola nella stanza ora non hai più aride e distorte ombre su di te. Ho chiesto la verità alla mia immagine! Persa ogni colpa che hai, e ora sai che infiniti modi hai per capire cosa vuoi.

Chorus

And you can find yourself in me more than you can't just believe, if you just look into my eyes.
Dominus domini in omnibus nobilis. Dominus domini in animis nobilis.

(Chorus) and I'm fighting a lost war.

• OLTRE •

Scivoli e rimani sospesa attimi di felicità, nuvole le vedi nel vento scorrere sopra di te. Cerchi di convincerti resti sola con te - ma non puoi costringerti - ora e ancora.

(Chorus) E non riesci a ridere, non riesci a fingere, tu non vedi cosa c'è, perché non sai che c'è oltre.

Resti lì ferma a guardare, immobile, una parte di te. Vestiti dal buio riemergi libera da questa realtà.
Dimmi che ci riuscirai - ora sono con te - e che ti difenderai - ora e ancora.

Chorus

Ora e ancora. (Chorus)
Oltre

I'm lost in the darkness.

Chiedimi una volta ancora di fingere per te, tu che non hai finto ancora di ridere di me. Privarmi dei miei difetti è facile per te, privarmi del mio pudore e del mio essere. Ma chiedimi se ho ancora tempo, chiedimi se ho perso tutto intorno e adesso riesco a fingere!

(Chorus) I can breathe, I can feel my envy. You can leave your heroes! I am still closed in my dreams, you can leave your heroes!

I burn in a fire.
Scivolare e poi cadere negli schemi tuoi, manipolando la mia mente come tu mi vuoi.
Soffochi le mie illusioni e dimmi se ora sei l'ultimo dei desideri nei peccati miei.
Ma chiediti se hai ancora tempo, chiediti se hai perso tutto intorno e adesso riesci a fingere!

Chorus

Hai ancora tempo, chiedimelo adesso! Puoi provare ancora ad inventarmi. Tu non riesci a dirmi - che ora sento e non vuoi capirmi - Stai fingendo.
Non toccarmi ora, lo pretendo, non pensare ora che sia come te.

Chorus

I can leave my heroes!

Chorus

• LIE •

Once again a lie, can you see in the mirror?
If you know my mind, seems like a child in Time,
but you say goodbye start with your selection
And my evil side cuts you like a knife.
Every day I cry, you are my obsession
In the middle of the night and in my confessions.
In my memories only fantasy
With my dark wings I fly again.

(Chorus) Sometimes I see you in the morning light, everything can change my life, everything is burnt inside.

Sometimes I see you across my eyes,
let me die tomorrow, but you leave me screaming here tonight.

Once again a lie, look into the mirror,
look into the sky, the vanity of your eyes.
How can you see in all my directions?
Every morning and every time waiting for salvation.
God save my love, God save my passion:
keep me still my hands and I won't be afraid.

Chorus

Can you feel me cry or die? I Never sleep into my life!
Can you hear my screams?

Chorus

Sometimes I see you in the morning light - See you in the morning light.
Sometimes I see you across my eyes - See you in the morning light.

• MEADOWS OF MAY •

I can see the joy in your evil eyes,
I can see the evil lingers in your soul.
Silently you are walking through the fog and fear.
You don't need to hide behind a smile again. I will try to forget, but I remember when you told me, in the night all your words I can hear in my head and I know, in the night all your words I can hear in my head.

(Chorus): "Save me and love me, hold me strongly my hand and I won't be afraid.
Don't you leave me alone when I fall? Tell me the reason: I can't touch the sky, I can't see through my eyes flowers
blooming in the meadows of May."

I can see the evil lying in your soul. I can see your sorrow travels in the wind.
I will try to release me again of your oppression. In the silence of night every whisper
I hear in my head! In the silence of night
every whisper I hear in my head!

Chorus

Tell me the reason:
I can't touch the sky,
I can't see through my eyes.

I hate to see your face, I hate to hear your name.
In every single day I hate your face, I hate your name. Now look your mistake, I wait for my revenge, in every single day and now I can taste my revenge!

"Don't you leave me alone
when I (fall)?"

• JOURNEY TO THE FREEDOM •

You are my life and I believe in your might, I'm reading on my heart the real dreams of my mind.

I lived in a bad day when I was alone,
I can remember I heard my name,
But I'm alone and I'm wondering now,
Never forget that voice in my mind.
Every day I pray that you open the door
So that you see a wonderful world,
But you don't understand what I'm telling you,
Listen to me: a fantastic world.

(Chorus): Breathe tomorrow, I can breathe in my life.
Live tomorrow in
a dream of life.

When I stay about to fall,
when I wake up,
I still believe!
And when I stay about to fall I open my wings
and fly.

I'm not afraid and I want to go on,
He's my salvation, I
need to go,
Look with your eyes
where is the truth
until the end I'll scream
for you.

Chorus

You are my life,
believing in your might,
I'm reading on my heart
the real dreams
of my mind.
